

Learn how you can leverage the Northeast Minneapolis Arts District!

You are invited to our first “State of the Arts District Forum” to learn what has been developing and how we can all leverage the Northeast Minneapolis Arts District.

The Forum will feature:

- Northeast Minneapolis Arts District activity update
- A conversation with Clay Squared to Infinity owners, Josh Blanc & Layl McDill, about their downtown holiday “pop-up shop”
- Possible opportunities in vacant storefronts downtown and elsewhere
- Discussion about tourism/tourists and the arts

The Forum will take place at the new Chowgirls’ Parlor -
April 12, 2012 from 6pm-8pm.

Chowgirls Parlor

1222 2nd Street N.E.

Minneapolis, MN 55413

northeastminneapolisartsdistrict.com

The Northeast Minneapolis Arts District & the Arts District Committee are both outcomes of the Arts Action Plan.

Currently managed by the Northeast Community Development Corporation, the Arts District Committee is comprised of NEMAA staff, Northeast CDC staff and interested community members. Additional support has been provided by Clay Squared to Infinity, Altered Esthetics, and the Northeast Chamber of Commerce.

For more information about either of these initiatives, please contact Northeast CDC Executive Director Jamie Schumacher - jamie@northeastcdc.org or 612.229.7421